VOL. V. NO. 138.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HARLEM RACING.

It was a bright, refreshing afternoon yesterday and all indications pointed to more than ordinarily interesting racing at Harlem. Consequently there was a crowd of fully 5,000 at the track. Manager Meyers said that there was more money taken in at the gate than on any other day since the meeting began, barring of course Decoration Day.

If the crowd went in search of good racing it must have returned to the city well satisfied as the sport was full of dash and life. To say that the fields were well balanced would hardly be giving Secretary Nathanson his dues. During the entire day there was but one short price favorite. That was Cheesestraw and she was at some stages of the betting, even money.

Especially well balanced were the fields in the third, fourth, fifth and six races. In the latter it was 6 to 1 and take your choice against any of the first choices at post time.

Outside of the fifth event none of the finishes were close, but the races were as a rule hotly contested. The fifth was at five furlongs for two-year-olds, and besides furnishing a close finish it also furnished an accident. The horses were racing in a close bunch on the far turn and it seemed then as if any of the first six had a chance to win. When the stretch was reached there was a scramble for good positions and during the mix-up Pantland stumbled and threw his jockey, Flick. The boy seemed to go over the colt's head and for an instant held to the bridle but eventually fell to the ground. He was badly shaken up but not seriously hurt. Indian, with Beauchamp up, skinned the rails and after a terrific drive with Mitten beat her out by a neck. In the squabble on the turn Mitten was jumped on and cut down behind.

Tom Berry's Clay Poynter made his first local appearance of the season and convinced all that saw him run that he is a greatly improved horse. The ring took liberties with the gelding and in the opening quotations offered 12 to 1 against him. Under a steady play this price shrunk to 10 to 1 at post time. There was a strong play on everything in the race and The Devil finally closed favorite at 2 to 1. Dick Dwyer sent the field away to a perfect start at the first attempt. It was an interesting race to look at every inch of the way. Tenby and Mizpah alternated in the lead for the first three-quarters and set a good, speedy pace. Before the stretch was reached Mizpah chucked it up and for an instant Tenby seemed to be the winner, but quicker than a wink Clay Poynter shot out of the bunch, and passing the fast tiring Tenby, had the race won an eighth out. Beauchamp, however, drew the finish fine and at the wire was only a neck in front of Rifle. The latter is a good, consistent performer and perhaps the hardest horse at the track to ride. He is an extremely long strider and the least bit of interference tells materially against him.

The Devil was jammed into the fence on the first turn and his side was badly bruised.

There was a lot of speed in the third race, and everything but Brigade was conceded a chance. His last race was so bad that it did not seem possible he could awake so suddenly. He did, though, and, displaying a surprising form somersault, won as he pleased. This was a terrific betting race, and although there were but six starters, it was 3 to 1 and even better against anything at post time. Goebel got a flying start, and at once set out to make a run-away race of it. He went the first half in 49 seconds, and headed for home a clear length in the lead, but when challenged he showed the white feather and at the finish was fifth. Harry Nutter and Brigade, who were last and next to last respectively most of the way, finished one two. Harry Nutter came through the stretch like a cyclone, and in doing so bumped into and almost threw Pauline J. over the fence. The filly had a chance at the time of the interference, but had to pull up.

Cheesestraw won her race like she has won many others around Chicago, in front at the start and never afterward headed. This filly is the best of her sex shown here this season. Lanza, who finished second, is by no means a bad filly and deserves attention in any company.

Phidias, long overdue, won the first race like a good horse. He went to the front on the back stretch and led all the way. Goose Liver, backed from 3 to 1 to 7 to 5, finished second. Rome Respass has the latter and he bet $2,000 on him.

The last race went to King Bermuda. There were thirteen starters, and down the back stretch the King was among the tail-enders. He weaved his way through gamely and standing a hard drive like a gentleman was three-quarters of a length in front and going away at the end. Locust Blossom got the place and Banquo II. who had all the bad luck in the race was a bang up third.

Tom Anderson, fresh from New Orleans and on his way to the big fight, was a visitor. He had a swell bet on Goose Liver, but got even on Cheesestraw.

McDOWELL'S NEW STAR

Tom McDowell, the young Kentucky turfman, has come to the front with a colt that will undoubtedly prove to be one of the season's two-year-old champions. His Excellency, a big and handsome son of Esber—Excellency, made his first appearance at Latonia Tuesday, and the race he ran impressed everyone, and the opinion was unanimous among shrewd trainers that the colt is the best in the west. His Excellency is about the best looking colt that has been raced in these parts in years, and his running does not belie his looks. Down at Louisville this spring His Excellency made his first start of the season, and was winning his race in such a big gallop that jockey Joe Hill eased him up at the sixteenth pole. Before he could get the colt going again he was nipped by a nose on the post by Estill. Shortly afterward His Excellency was taken ill, and he did not recover until the Latonia meeting was well under way. Yesterday was the colt's second start, and he made a show of his field, literally walking away from the hitherto regarded crack, Lieutenant Gibson. He turned five furlongs in 1:04, and the way he did it was decidedly sparkling. Tom McDowell purchased His Excellency from J. N. Camden, the owner of the Hartland Stud in Kentucky. Mr. Camden bred the colt, and Mr. McDowell, on account of his magnificent looks, picked him out of a bunch of forty yearlings. That Mr. McDowell's judgment was good was evidenced yesterday, and as smart a judge as Ed Corrigan ventured the opinion that His Excellency would prove one of the best youngsters of the year. His Excellency is engaged in the Seneca Stakes, and will be seen in that event. He was also eligible for the Harold Stakes, won last week by St. Ivor, but Mr. McDowell deemed it best not to start him so soon after recovering from a spell of sickness. Mr. McDowell is very sweet on His Excellency, and says he is the best racehorse he ever owned, which is saying much in view of the performances of Rush, Spirituelle and Batten as two-year-olds.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

*Substitute starters. Time, 12½, 24, 36½, 50, 1:03. Winner—Ch. c. by Tammany—Ayrshire Rose. Post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won easily. St. Finnan was by far the best. He got away well and had a clear route all the way. Stuart had a lot of speed and ran a good race for his first time out. He quit badly at the finish. The Corinthian ran a good race. Mr. Jersey, Mercer and Petruchio all made up much ground. The start settled the race, none of those behind the first and flight having a chance. Scratched—12440 Midwood, 110; 12096 Golden, 110. St. Finnan, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. The Corinthian, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Mr. Jersey show, 4 to 1. Petruchio, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Gaze came again in the stretch and finished strong. Azucena hardly ran her race. She is short and will probably do better. Bon Ino closed fast and is good. Clonsilla was not well handled. Watch her in any company at a mile. She is fast and good now. Fast Black and Bettie Gray were outclassed by the first three. Scratched—12229 Buena, 115; (12529) Admiration, 106; 12436 Bardella, 106; 11714 Nay Nay, 106. Imp, place, 9 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Gaze, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Azucena, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 11½, 24, 49½, 56. Winner—Br. c. by Victory—Queal. Post 14 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Trumpet was away well. Maher made every post a winning one. He is a fast and free running colt of fair class. McMeekin is very good, but could not give weight to the winner. Mark Cheek, heavily played, ran a good race. Bramble Rose is improving, but will hardly do with the first three. Flaunt is nowhere near his early spring form. Missionary shows no improvement. Midwood got a bad break and suffered from interference. Pasig had a little speed. Lamp Globe got a bad break also, but showed no speed. He has worked fast and likes a route. Trumpet, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. McMeekin, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Mark Cheek, show, 2 to 5.

His race was a great improvement over his last. Strathconan is due and should win soon. Kirkwood is an honest colt and is always doing his best. Lakland, slow to get in motion, closed very fast. Tillo pulled up very lame. Survivor is about ready. Danforth ran a bad race. So did Handball. Scratched—12499 Rhineland, 107; 12541 Merry Prince, 108; 12541 Clonsilla, 106. NOTES OF THE TURF.

English racegoers are to have one advantage over their brethren in this country. At the annual meeting of the Jockey Club this month
a proposal will be made that all horses running at the meeting shall be brought into the paddock, their attendants being provided with badges bearing numbers which will correspond with those on the race card. This will enable the visitors to know the horses walking about without asking the men in charge.

May Hempstead has been taken east and will be raced on the New York tracks. She is easily foremost of the western three-year-old fillies, but from present indications she will meet in Admiration, one of her own age and sex, competent to dispute her claim to being the best three-year-old filly of the year. Admiration's defeat of Ethelbert Wednesday was a performance of signal merit and one that justifies all that has been claimed for her.

Pat Dunne sold Approval to John E. Madden
Monday for the guessed-at price of $5,000.
Tuesday he won for Madden, beating among others the good colt Survivor that Dunne recently sold to W. P. Norton for a long price.
About the next thing in order will be to hear that Madden has sold Approval to Sydney Paget for about twice the sum he paid Dunne for him. A great "horse trader" is that same Madden.

Gideon & Daly have dispensed with the services of "Skeets" Martin, their jockey, and Fred Taral will ride for them in the future when he can make the weights. Martin's ride on Affect on May 18, when she was beaten by Midsummer,
and his ride on His Royal Highness in the National Stallion Stakes, did not meet with the approval of his employers, hence the separation.

James R. Keene asked Green B. Morris recently if he desired to sell Water King. The veteran replied: "Yes, I will take $10,000 for him." Mr. Keene laughed and exclaimed: "I guess you don't want to sell." Morris responded: "Yes I do, and I have some higher priced ones in my stable if that one doesn't suit."

G. W. Curtis' broodmares, Essay, by Enquirer, and Red Cap by Blue Eyes, have just arrived at Joseph D. Lucas' Goodwood Stud in St.
Louis County, and are to be bred to Dr. Hasbrouck. Essay is the dam of Topmast, one of the best sons of Top Gallant, in training.

Olinthus, I. P. Diggs' famous colt, who has achieved a brilliant record on the track during the past two seasons and who has earned for his owner something like $9,000, has been taken to his owner's farm at Woodland—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

The following candidates have incurred penalties in the Suburban Handicap: Banastar, 12 pounds; Fleur de Lis, 12; King Barleycorn,
8; Filigrane, 12. Their weights now are: Banastar, 122; Fleur de Lis, 121; King Barleycorn 108; Filigrane, 110.

It is more than likely that the English Jockey Club will give the starting machine another chance, for Lord Durham is credited with the proposal that all races for two-year-olds shall be started by a starting machine to be approved by the stewards.

John Boden, who has done so well with the Belmont colt, Don d'Oro, has recently bought the colt; Firearm from Mr. Belmont and expects to do as well with him as he did with Don d'Oro. Firearm is a fast horse but so far an unlucky one.

Miller & Blazer have left San Francisco for Saratoga, taking Merops, Oremus and Oriva,
the last two being daughters of Ormonde.

Post 14 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive. It was a bad looking race from every point of view. McCue rode the winner well and he is a fair colt. Fly by Night ran a good race and stood the clove drive gamely. He is worth watching. Toluca is nowhere near her two-year old form. Great and had no excuse. He ran a very bad race. Greyfeld threw his rider at the p. st and ran away a half mile. He is a bad actor. Rare Perfume h-s had a let-up and was not fit. Armament ran like a truck horse. Vertigo made up ground and closed fast through the last furlong.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Bannock was far the best. Ed Tipton had a lot of speed but could not last the route. The Burlington Route quit badly at the end. Dan Rice seems to be back to his true form again. Merry Prince did well under poor handling. Althea, badly outrun the first part, ran a fair race.

Winner—B. g. by Jim Gore—Galatea.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were hard at it. Phidias had the most speed. He was fortunate in getting away well and always had clear sailing. Goose Liver was pe hps the best. He got into a bad mix-up on the first turn and was obliged to go around his field down the backstretch. He seemed to have a royal chance to win about the eighth post, but Knight was too light to help him much and he could never get up. Myosotis hung when the pinch came. Lobengula, although stiff and sore, ran a good race. Pass this race up for Uncle ABB. He can do better. Needed a hard rough journey.
Overweights—Uncle ABB 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. f. by Cayuga—Cheese Straw.
Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won in a drive; second fully extended; third eased at the end. Cheesestraw ran one of her best races. She is a sweet article. Lanza put her to a drive at the eighth post and she responded gamely. Lanza deserves consideration in almost any company. She was right there all the way, but stopped as though a trifle short. Fannie Wyn was sharply out off at the start, but for this she would have been a keen contender. Nullah suffered from bad handling. Reitz got her pocketed on the stretch turn and was obliged to pull up. This accounts for her being so far back.
Cheesestraw, place, out. Lanza, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Fannie Wyn, show, 1 to 2. Nullah, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hayden Edwards—Opal.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth driving hard. Brigade came to life with a sudden start and ran a cracking good race. This was a rank reversal of form on his part. Today he won like a racehorse. Harry Nutter finished very strong. In his rush through the stretch he badly interfered with Pauline J., nearly throwing her over the fence. The filly was going stoutly at that time and but for this interference would have been close up at the wire. Hubart's race was a grand one under his heavy impost. He was the best ridden horse in the race. Goebel and Bobby Boy raced each other to exhaustion in front. Both were fighting for the money at the finish and ran their races.
Scratched—12235 Chisel, 97.
Brigade, place, 3 to 1; show, even. Harry Nutter, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Bobby Boy, place, 3 to 2; show, 1 to 2. Pauline J., place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Hobart, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Linden—Ella H.
Off at first break to a good start. Won handily; second driving hard; third and fourth doing their best. Clay Poynter was at his best and ran a splendid race. Beauchamp placed him well through out and made his move at the right time. The gelding was never urged and had plenty left at the finish. Rifle ran to the notch. He is a big long striding fellow and a hard horse to ride. Tabor, though, managed him to perfection. Tenby quit in the stretch. He had a hard task killing Mizpah off the first part of it. The latter is a speedy horse but a very bad betting proposition. He stopped to a walk at the end. The Devil seemed stiff and sore. He was sharp shut off on the first turn. In the mix-up he was roughly handled and bruised his side considerably. Molo belongs in lower company.
Overweights—Rifle, 4 pounds; Molo, 2.
Clay Poynter, place, 4 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Rifle, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Tenby, show, out. The Devil, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Mizpah, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Huron—Square Dance.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth were driving also. Beauchamp skinned the race with Indian on the last turn and saved a lot of ground. He also rode a powerful finish and assisted the colt a lot at the critical times. Mitten should have won. She got into a jam on the stretch turn and was badly cut down behind. Notwithstanding this the filly finished gamely. Pantland seemed to be winning when he stumbled. The colt was straightened away and coming fast when the accident happened. Flick was unseated and got a nasty fall, but was not seriously hurt. Chump had some speed, but not much. Ravenswood ran an improved race.
Scratched—12492 Olive Order, 103; 12341 Man of Honor, 109; 12490 Creation, 106.

Winner—Br. g. by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.
Post 8 minutes. Start good for all but Idle Hour. Won cleverly after an early drive. The next four were close together and driving hard. King Bermuda ran a swell race. He appeared to be hopelessly beaten at one time down the backstretch, but picked up his field one at a time and was going away at the end. Locust Blossom hung on gamely through the stretch. Banquo II. came from nowhere the last three fourlings. Muskalonge had a rough journey. So had Ernest Wiles, who ran a fair race. Warren Point dropped steadily back the first half and then came fast through the stretch. Miss Ross and Lord Zani both quit badly.
Overweights—Cuirassier, 3 pounds.
King Bermuda, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Locust Blossom, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Banquo II., show, 8 to 2.
